NOTES ON JACOB PATRICK JR born February 13, 1764 Voluntown Ct.

Data on Jacob's Revolutionary War record and subsequent Pension and Bounty Land were derived from affidavit attesting to his service by himself and others and from an enquiry made by Mr. Robert S. Franklin P.O. Box 191, Charleston WV --whose response from Mr. A. D. Hiller Executive Assistant to the Administrator [unknown department] dated October 14, 1939. All papers are in my Patrick file.

While residing in Voluntown, Ct with his parents, Jacob entered the Service of the United States in the late summer or early fall of 1777. The British Army Occupying Rhode Island and the Harbor, the country became alarmed and the inhabitants, including Jacob's father and others, turned out to resist the enemy. Jacob at this time was between 13 and 14 years of age and was desirous to accompany his father. His father consenting, Jacob went as a waiter to Lt. Montgomery of Voluntown---during the period he crossed the channel at night through the British fleet with Capt. Barton who was on a mission to capture General Prescott. Being a boy he was left in command of the boat when they landed where he waited until the party returned with their prisoner General Prescott and returned through the British fleet to the American encampment. General Prescott was later exchanged for General Sullivan.

THIS PERIOD OF SERVICE WAS APPROXIMATELY 10 DAYS.....

In 1778 Jacob's father moved to Plainfield Ct. In the spring or early summer Jacob served three (3) months for his father who had been drafted from the Militia. During this period served in Capt. Joshua Bottom's company [and Lt. Nicholas Cageviss of Voluntown Ct] and was stationed in New London Ct. Upon completion of his service he returned home.

THIS PERIOD OF SERVICE WAS 3 MONTHS.....

Spring 1780 3 months at Browns Pt.

1780/1781 one year Fort Mifflin discharged a few days before the fort was destroyed by Benedict Arnold

1781 Fall one week served on sloop "Hancock" - in battle with British vessel was wounded in left leg and right foot - made his escape and reached Stonington Ct.

State of New-York } County of Saratoga } I. On the fifth day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty two, personally appeared in open court, before the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Saratoga, now sitting, Ebenezer Patrick, a resident of the town of Stillwater, in the County of Saratoga, and State of New-York, aged thirty eight years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on his oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832 -
That the applicant emigrated from Connecticut, to New-York in 1774, That he entered the service of the United States in the militia of the State of New-York in the year 1775, and served as herein stated first, as orderly Sergeant in a Company of which John Thompson, was Captain, Josiah Benjamin, and Joseph Rogers Lieutenants, and Isaac
L. Fonda, Ensign, then of the District of Saratoga and County of Albany - now town of Stillwater, and County of Saratoga, all of whom are now dead, and was out in the militia, at different periods during the whole war. At one time he was out in the north part of the (now) County of Saratoga with a detachment of militia. employed in building a block house. But does not recollect under whose immediate command. when this appointment acted as orderly Sergeant, and one Michael Beagle, was orderly Sergeant of an other detachment from another part of the District of Saratoga on the same duty. which was just before Burgoyne reached this part of the country, and ~~from out, as this appointment is not correct~~

- 2) joined, about two months. That at another time, he was out with a detachment of militia at Fort George before Burgoyne or any part of his army had got there. Does not recollect the officers of the expedition - nor what particular service they were on. But remembers that Gov. Clinton was there, and after being from home some time, they were dismissed to march back again without provisions. ~~At another time he was out in the militia. The year Burgoyne was coming down, in the company of Captain John Thompson (apronoid) who marched from Stillwater to Fort-Edward, about 24 miles; and from thence, was one of a detachment to Fort-George, to bury the Dead, after the battle there, with a part of the British Army. one Col. Livingston was~~

Commander of the American troops. That then lay at Fort-Edward, it was in what was called the "retreat" from the Northward by the Americans on the advance of the British Army. He then with sev-eral other families in the neighborhood of Stillwa-ter, removed his to Connecticut, and in the fall of the same year (1777) returned with some other persons to Stillwater. They met the American army seven or eight miles north of Albany, advancing upon the British, and came up in the rear of them.

And when the Battle took place, at what is called "Bemis' Heights" in Stillwater, they took their arms and joined in the battle on that day as volunteers, not as parts of any company, but as so many individuals. That for the first and second year of the war, the militia of this part of the country was almost ~~entirely~~ out in small parties, performing local duties for short periods - such as scouting parties - to discover and capture parties of the ~~British~~ British, that were frequently coming down into the country, and for the purpose of apprehending and bringing in disaffected persons.

That about the third year of the war, the company to which this applicant belonged, was divided in to what was called "squads", or fire-teams

Each under the command of a commissioned officer and were held in constant readiness to turn out as occasion required. That their requisitions and services were frequent, & continued during the whole war, and for the purposes just before mentioned. But the deponent cannot ^{now} recollect ~~the details~~ or circumstances of any other expedition or service he may have been in, but is well satisfied from his general recollections, that combining the requisitions of ~~the militia~~ ^{the militia} it would amount to at least one third of the whole war - say two years.

That the applicant was born on the 14th day of October in the year 1754, in the town of Voluntown State of Connecticut, and has a recollection of his age in his family Bible. That he lived at Stillwater when called into service. ~~He drafted~~ ^{He drafted} lived there until 1814 when he removed to Ellbury, and after residing there two years he returned to Stillwater where he remained until 1825

~~when the militia was called into service in 1814~~
-red to Watervliet where he resided about two years, and moved from thence to the town of Gloosick where he lived until the spring of 1830 when he removed to Stillwater in which town he now resides. That he had no discharge, and has no documentary evidence of his service, and refers to Elisha Andrews & William Seymour, persons in his neighborhood who will swear to his character.

for viacity and belief in his services.

And that he hereby relinquishes every claim whatsoever to a pension or an annuity, except the present, and he declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency in any State.

Descendants of William Roy Patrick

Generation No. 1

1. WILLIAM ROY¹ PATRICK was born Abt. 1810 in MA¹. He married MARIE URSULE JALBERT Abt. 1845.

More About WILLIAM ROY PATRICK:

Fact 1: County/State: White Co., IL

Children of WILLIAM PATRICK and MARIE JALBERT are:

 - i. CHARLES ANTHONY² PATRICK, b. August 13, 1850, IL; d. December 08, 1927, Cooter, Pemiscot, MO; Buried Cottonwood Point Cemetery.
 - ii. MARY PATRICK, b. Unknown; m. FARLEY.

More About MARY PATRICK:

Fact 1: Lived in Seattle, WA early 1900's

Generation No. 2

2. CHARLES ANTHONY² PATRICK (*WILLIAM ROY*¹) was born August 13, 1850 in IL², and died December 08, 1927 in Cooter, Pemiscot, MO; Buried Cottonwood Point Cemetery³. He married NANCY MALINDA COLE Abt. 1875 in Pemiscot Co., MO⁴.

Notes for CHARLES ANTHONY PATRICK:

From the 1900 US Census Soundex for Missouri, Charles Anthony Patrick was born in August 1850 in Illinois. He married Nancy Malinda Cole in about 1875 based on the birth of their first child. This census shows Nancy born in MO.

The 1880 US Census for Pemiscot County Missouri shows Charles, age 28, and Nancy M., age 21, with no children. Living with them is James A., age 23, born in Illinois, brother of Charles, and a Sarah Swails listed as "Keeping house." I believe her age is 54. The "Widowed/Divorced" column is checked.

This census also shows Charles' father born in Massachussets, his mother in Ohio. Nancy's father was born in Kentucky, her mother in North Carolina.

James was five years Charles' junior which would indicate that their parents remained in Illinois for at least five years after James' birth.

Nancy appears on the 1860 census, age 2, with her parents and six siblings; they were living in Cottonwood Point, Pemiscot Co., Missouri.

Cottonwood Point Cemetery is an abandoned cemetery which is long neglected and overgrown. It is doubtful that any markers remain since the cemetery is right below the levee in an area which sometimes floods.

More About CHARLES ANTHONY PATRICK:

Fact 1: AFN:BM5P-CX.

Fact 2: (Buried Cottonwood Point Cemetery)

Notes for NANCY MALINDA COLE:

According to the 1900 Census, Nancy was born in MO, her father in TN and her mother in NC.

Daddy always said she was "half Indian" and that she was related to THE Coles.
